Gentlemen I have received word from my customer, relative to the old glass and he would like to see it before making any purchase. Now if you will write to him and ask him to fix upon a date when it would be convenient for him to call, and see and examine the glass. I think you could come to an amicable arrangement with him, as he is a lover of such things. I bear in mind the fact of your offering me 20% commission on whatever you will sell me but never. If you make a deal with him I would rather have my commission in form of either silver medals or the silver coins of Great Britain.
